Policies and Procedures

2-1. Approval Authority

a. The Adjutant General has delegated approval authority for specified awards and decorations as shown in table 2–1. The Adjutant General has retained approval authority for all other State awards not delegated or listed.

Designation and/or Delegation of Award Approval Authority

Commander/Director	May Award

Any Unit Commander	SC Active State Service Ribbon Palmetto Service Ribbon Safety Service Ribbon SC Mobilization Ribbon
R&R Battalion Commander / Force Support Squadron Commander	Recruiting and Retention Achievement Ribbon
Counter-Drug Commander	SC Counterdrug Ribbon

b. Approval Authorities must be in command or serving as head of a principal department (as designated by The Adjutant General – see para. 2-1e) of the South Carolina Military Department. Authority is extended to include those individuals occupying vacant command or director positions of Approval Authorities listed in Table 2–1, regardless of grade. For example, a MAJ/O-4 assigned on orders as a Battalion Commander (an authorized LTC/O-5 position) is authorized to act on recommendations for award of the South Carolina Achievement Ribbon. Commanders/heads of a principal department may not delegate this authority to subordinate officials not in a designated command or department head position (i.e., Executive Officer, Chief Of Staff, Deputy Commander, Deputy Director and so forth).

(1) In instances where the incumbent Commander or Director is not available to act on recommendations (for example, hospitalization, extended TDY, or leave), the Acting Commander or Director, regardless of rank, may take final action provided their Assumption of Command or Authority is officially documented. In such cases, the Acting Commander or Director will sign documents using the title "Acting Commander/Director." The Unit/Department will attach and forward a copy of the Assumption of Command/Authority with the DA Form 638 (Recommendation for Award), MDSC Form 58 (Request for State Awards) or State Employee Awards Nomination Form (see <https://sctag.org/forms> for copies of forms).

(2) Rear Detachment Commanders are not authorized awards approval authority if the command is deployed forward. In this situation, the Rear Detachment Commander will forward the award recommendations to the next higher command awards approval authority.

c. The Adjutant General/Commanding Generals (CG) may delegate (must be in writing) awards approval authority to their Deputy Adjutant General(s)(DAG)/Assistant Adjutant General (AAG)/Deputy CG(s) (DCG) commensurate with the DAG/AAG/DCG's rank. DAG/AAG/DCGs are further defined as an Officer in the grade of BG/O-7 (including COL/O-6 Promotable (P) in a General Officer billet) and above.

d. Unit Commanders are the approval/disapproval authority for all awards authorized by Table 2-1 for their command, and will recommend approval/upgrade/ downgrade/disapproval on all other award recommendations from their organization and subordinate units before forwarding request(s) to their next higher headquarters.

e. The Directors of the South Carolina Emergency Management Division, South Carolina Youth ChalleNGe/Job Challenge, South Carolina National Guard Museum, and STARBASE are designated as heads of a principal Department of the South Carolina Military Department and are delegated State Awards approval authority in accordance with Table 2-1 (Designation and/or Delegation of Award Approval Authority). Additionally, they will recommend approval/upgrade/downgrade/disapproval on all other award recommendations from their organization before forwarding request(s) to The Adjutant General or Deputy Adjutant General.

f. South Carolina National Guard Commanders having the authority to approve an award may delegate disapproval authority (to include downgrade) to their immediate subordinate commanders, provided those subordinate commanders have authority to approve the next lower award. This delegation must be in writing and will be accomplished with each change of command. This disapproval authority includes South Carolina Military Department awards for civilians.

2-2. Who May Recommend

Any individual having personal knowledge of an act, achievement, or service believed to warrant the award of a decoration, may submit a formal recommendation into command channels.

2-3. Time Limitations

a. Each recommendation for an award of an individual or unit decoration must be entered administratively into command channels within two (2) years of the act, achievement, or service to be honored.

b. Eligibility for service awards is not governed by time limit requirements because eligibility for these awards is a matter of service record verification.

2-4. Character of Service

Neither the South Carolina Military Department nor any unit or organizations within the Department will award or present an award to any individual whose entire service subsequent to the time of the distinguished act, achievement, or service was not "honorable". The determination of "honorable" service will be based on such honest and faithful service as in accordance with standards of conduct, courage, and duty required by law and customs of service, of a member of the grade to whom the standard is applied.

2-5. Period of Award

a. For meritorious service awards, the cited period is limited to the period of service during which the individual served under the recommending command. The exception is for retirement awards or end of service (i.e., resignation, transfer or departure) awards covering the entire period of service. Meritorious service is characterized by distinguished service and performance over a sustained period above that normally expected.

b. For meritorious achievement awards, the length of time is not a primary consideration; however, the act or achievement should have a clearly discernible beginning and ending date.

2-6. Succeeding Awards

Not more than one of the same decoration will be awarded to any one person. For each succeeding act or period of service that justifies the award of such decoration, an Oak Leaf Cluster, Palmetto Tree or Star attachment is awarded to indicate the subsequent award.

2-7. Duplication of Awards

a. Only one decoration (State or Federal) will be awarded to an individual or unit for the same act, achievement, or period of service. This includes awards from other states or territories as well as State Guard and Joint Services Detachment awards.

b. Individual or unit awards and decorations received from a foreign nation or government are not considered a duplication of awards.

c. The award of a decoration in recognition of an act of heroism or meritorious service does not preclude an award for meritorious service at the termination of an assignment (i.e., transfer or end-of-service).

d. Recommendations for award of a decoration for meritorious service will not refer to acts of heroism or meritorious achievements which have been previously recognized by decorations.

2-8. Submission of Awards

a. Individual Awards

(1) Individual Awards are recommended and awarded by use of the DA Form 638 (Recommendation for Award) (see <https://sctag.org/forms> and Appendix B - Instructions for Completion and Processing of DA Form 638) unless otherwise noted and in accordance with the specific requirements noted in Table 2-2 (Administrative Requirements for Individual Awards).

(2) Awards recommendations for the SC Meritorious Service Medal, SC Commendation Ribbon and SC Achievement Ribbon require a narrative description of meritorious service or achievement in bullet format in the space allowed on the DA Form 638.

(3) Awards recommendations for the Palmetto Cross, SC Guardsman Medal of Valor, SC Extraordinary Achievement Medal, and SC Exceptional Service Medal require a narrative justification (not to exceed one page). The narrative will be added as an addendum (at Enclosures tab) to the DA Form 638.

(4) For valor awards, attach statements of eyewitnesses, preferably in the form of certificates, affidavits or sworn statements, extracts from official records, sketches, maps, diagrams, photographs, etc., to support and amplify stated facts.

(5) The awarding of individual awards by use of a roster or attached list of names is not authorized unless otherwise noted in Table 2-2 (Individual Awards).

2-9. Publishing and Issuing of Awards

a. The Orders Issuing Authority will publish Permanent Orders for the Individual (see Table 2-2 – Administrative Requirements for Individual Awards) and Unit Awards (see Table 2-4 – Administrative Requirements for Unit Awards) by use of a DA Form 638 (Recommendation for Award) (see <https://sctag.org/forms>) or per the exceptions noted in Tables 2-2 & 2-4. The Orders Issuing Authority will forward individual and unit awards to the appropriate commanders upon receipt of an approved awards form from the Approving Authority.

b. Units may administratively award Service Awards (see Table 2-3 – Administrative Requirements for Service Awards) without the requirement for orders by use of an MDSC Form 58 (Request for State Awards and Medals) (see <https://sctag.org/forms>). The Orders Issuing Authority will forward Service Awards to the appropriate commanders upon receipt of an approved MDSC Form 58 (Request for State Awards and Medals).

c. The Orders Issuing Authority will award South Carolina Military Department Civilian Awards to civilian employees of the Military Department (see Table 2-5 – Administrative Requirements for Civilian Awards) by use of a State Employee Awards Nomination Form (see <https://sctag.org/forms>). The Orders Issuing Authority will forward awards to the appropriate Department Director or organization upon receipt of an approved award form from the Approving Authority.

2-10. Announcement, Presentation and Posting of Awards

a. The Awardee's unit or directorate will present the awards to the awardee during an appropriate ceremony as soon as possible. Awardee's unit or directorate will make the announcement as soon as possible after the Orders Issuing Authority has issued the award.

b. Units and directorates will avoid premature disclosure of information to an individual being recommended for an award. This is a potential source of embarrassment to the recommending official, unit, and organization in the event of disapproval.

c. The Orders Issuing Authority will forward a copy of all orders to the appropriate A-1/G-1 (Military personnel) and to the owing units or directorates for posting to the individual's personnel records as applicable.

2-11. Posthumous Awards

a. Award Recommendations. When considering an award recommendation, the characterization of the proposed awardee's death will not be used as the sole purpose for determining approval or disapproval of an award.

b. Preparation of Award Elements. Orders for awards to individuals who are deceased at the time the award is approved will indicate the award is being made posthumously. The engraved medal and/or certificate will not include the word "posthumous". In cases where an individual is posthumously promoted to a higher grade, both the certificate and orders should reflect the grade to which promoted.

c. Presentation of Awards to Primary Next of Kin. The appropriate commander or department head will make presentation of the award(s) to the primary Next-Of-Kin (see para. 2-11d for order of precedence for Next-Of-Kin). When the commander or department head cannot make presentation to the primary Next-Of-Kin, the commander or department head will prepare a report listing the reasons the presentation could not be made. The commander or department head will immediately forward the report with the award orders, certificate, and citation to The Office of the Adjutant General, ATTN: Chief of Staff for State Operations, 1 National Guard Road, Columbia, SC 29201-4752, where appropriate action will be taken to accomplish the presentation. Under no circumstances will commanders or department heads forward award elements (medal, certificate, and citation) directly to the primary Next-Of-Kin.

d. Eligible Classes of Primary Next-of-Kin. Primary Next-Of-Kin are in descending order of precedence: surviving spouse; eldest surviving child (natural or adoptive); father or mother, unless legal exclusive (sole) custody was granted to a person by reason of a court decree or statutory provision; blood or adoptive relative who was granted legal custody of the person by a court decree or statutory provision; eldest surviving brother or sister; eldest surviving grandparent; and eldest surviving grandchild.

e. Replacement and Duplicate Issue of Medals or Ribbons. Duplicate issue will not be made to a primary Next-Of-Kin when the records indicate previous issue was made to the living Awardee or previous primary Next-Of-Kin.

f. Posthumous Presentation of a Subsequent Awards. When an appurtenance is presented posthumously, it will be attached to the appropriate medal or ribbon, and the complete decoration consisting of the medal or ribbon and appurtenances will be presented to the primary Next-Of-Kin, rather than the appurtenance alone.

g. Posthumous Presentation of a Tab. When an individual who has qualified for a tab dies before the award is made, the tab may be presented to the primary Next-Of-Kin.

2-12. Awards to Military and Civilian Personnel of Other States and Territories

a. Commanders or Directors are authorized to award State awards to military and civilian personnel of other states and territories as outlined in table 2-1. The Adjutant General has retained approval authority for all other State awards not delegated or listed.

c. Units or Departments will process the awards request in accordance with para. 2-8 (Submission of Awards).

2-13. Awards to Foreign Military Personnel and Non-Military Department Civilians

a. Approval authority for all State awards to foreign military personnel or Non-Military Department civilians is the Adjutant General.

b. State service medals will not be awarded to foreign military personnel or Non-Military Department civilians.

Chapter 3
Awards

3-1. Overview

a. The decision to award an individual a decoration and the decision as to which award is appropriate are both subjective decisions made by the commander or director having award approval authority. Awards for meritorious achievement or service will not be based upon the grade of the intended recipient. Rather, the award should reflect both the individual's level of responsibility and his or her manner of performance. The degree to which an individual's achievement or service enhanced the readiness or effectiveness of his or her organization will be the leading factor.

b. Commanders, directors, units and organizations may not establish preconditions for an award, such as, for example, when Service Members or individuals are informed in advance that attainment of specific goals will result in the automatic award of a given decoration. Award and decorations will not be used as prizes in contests.

- c. Limiting awards to a specific number per unit or organization is not authorized.

a. The Palmetto Cross (PC)

(1) The Palmetto Cross is presented by The Adjutant General in the name of the Governor to any citizen of the State or member of the military, active or retired, who has distinguished themselves conspicuously by extraordinary heroism at the risk of their own life under justifiable circumstances, or who has performed exceptionally outstanding service to the State of South Carolina in a duty of great responsibility. The act or acts of heroism must have been so notable and have involved risk of life so extraordinary as to set the individual apart from their comrades. The performance of service must be such as to merit recognition for service that is clearly exceptional. Exceptional performance of normal duty will not alone justify an award of this decoration.

(2) The medal is a 1-1/8" circular medallion superimposed on a 2 1/4" X 2-1/8" cross within a border reading "Distinguished Service" above [and "Palmetto Cross" below] a palmetto tree as depicted in the South Carolina Seal between two crossed flags of the United States and South Carolina, over all at base a scroll reading "Valero". The palmetto tree has long been closely associated with the history of South Carolina being representative on the State Flag adopted in 1777, as well as on the State Seal where it symbolized the defeat of the British Fleet on Sullivan's Island, the fort having been built of palmetto logs. The medal is suspended by a metal loop from a 1-3/8" wide blue ribbon.

(3) The ribbon bar is 1-3/8" X 3/8" in the same design and colors as the medal ribbon. Bronze oak leaf clusters are worn to indicate successive awards with a silver oak leaf cluster worn in lieu of five (5) bronze oak leaf clusters.

b. South Carolina Guardsman Medal of Valor (MOV)

(1) The MOV is awarded to any member of the South Carolina National Guard, active or retired, who distinguished themselves by heroism not involving actual wartime conflict with an enemy.

(2) The extraordinary act must have resulted in an accomplishment so exceptional and outstanding as to clearly set the individual apart from their comrades or from other persons in similar circumstances. The heroism must have involved a clearly recognizable personal hazard or danger and the voluntary risk of life under conditions not involving wartime conflict with an armed enemy. Awards will not be made solely on the basis of saving a life, assisting emergency personnel, or acting as a "good Samaritan".

(3) The medal is a round 1-1/8" medallion superimposed on a six pointed star with v-shaped extremities between stylized sunbursts, depicting one of the battle scenes of Sullivan's Island (which later became Fort Moultrie) at which the first flag of South Carolina was raised, all surmounted by an eagle above a plaque reading "VALOR", all bronze. The battle on Sullivan's Island where Colonel William Moultrie's heroic defense of the island against the attack of the British Fleet took place on 28 June 1776 symbolizes the ultimate in valorous achievement. In the beginning of the action, a flag designed and ordered by Colonel Moultrie was flying over the then unfinished and unnamed fort on Sullivan's Island. When a shell from a British warship shot away the flagstaff, Sergeant Jasper of the Grenadiers immediately jumped on the beach, took up the flag, fastened it onto a sponge staff, replaced it on the parapet, and, though the British ships were directing their incessant broadsides at the spot, held it under fire until a new staff was installed. At that time, the flag, which was blue with a silver crescent, was raised above the fort and served as a symbol of victory over the British Fleet. The flag, with palmetto tree added to commemorate the victory (the famous fort was made of palmetto logs), was adopted officially in 1777 as the State Flag of South Carolina. On the reverse is the inscription: Guardsman Medal of Valor; Presented To: (Name) (Date). The medal is suspended by a metal loop from a 1-3/8 " wide red ribbon with 1/8" wide blue bands on each end.
